

AUSTRALIAN TRIO CHASE ATLANTIC RELEASE THREE NEW TRACKS FROM PART TWO OF UPCOMING DEBUT ALBUM

March 31, 2017 (Burbank, CA) - Australian trio Chase Atlantic released three new tracks, "Cassie," "Triggered," and "Why Stop Now," from their 'Part Two' release on Warner Bros. Records. The trio stopped by Billboard Studios in New York City to celebrate the release. Watch the live performance HERE.

While creating their new music, the band honed and fine-tuned a definitive style that is as equally reverent of Tame Impala and Skrillex as it is of Travi$ Scott. "We really found our musical identity this past year," says Mitchel. "It felt like we were the only ones putting out music that we produced and made entirely by ourselves. That's the process. It's real." Associated Press describes the music as "echoing The Weeknd and The 1975."

The band, which is brothers Mitchel Cave and Clinton Cave and their longtime friend Christian Anthony, personally write, play, produce, and record their own urban-influenced brand of dark-alternative pop punctuated by rock and R&B, blurring the lines between a nocturnal aesthetic and primal bliss on "Part Two" of the upcoming self-titled album. "Part Two" is available on all streaming platforms.
